

Gallimaufry

collection of diverse things; hodgepodge

If you are a creative person, or simply wish to make an attempt at creativity, Mr. Pace's Creative Writing calls welcomes your submissions in the areas of Short Fiction, Creative Non-fiction, Poetry, and black-and-white artwork or photographs to be published in the Abilene High Literary Journal.

Submissions need to be in a disposable hard copy(we will not return your entry with our notes if you are not accepted) and electronically via gallimaufry09@gmail.com. We will accept entries until January 30, 2009 at 3:30 PM.

All short stories and creative non-fiction need not exceed 3000 words. Also, keep in mind that all fiction stories must be original. We will not accept fanfiction

Color artwork or photographs will be accepted but will be printed as black and white.

All those wishing to submit should remember that this is a school publication and the Code of Conduct must be upheld. If debating over whether or not to include questionable material in your work, remember the three P's. If you would not want your Parent, Preacher, or Principal to read it, then we don't want to either.

For more information, or to pick up the Cover Letter (required), speak to your English teacher or Mr. Pace in room 132.
